RULES

The competition rules will be based on CIA AX MER version 2003.

The few changes compared to version 2002 will be sent with INFO 2. The rules will be available on the SBF and the CIA websites.

Questions on the rules may be mailed to Jan Balkedal, jan.balkedal@mailbox.swipnet.se not later than one week before the event. These questions and the answers will be reviewed during the General Briefing.

MAPS

The competition map for the Swedish and Nordic Championships is the same as used for the European Championships 1998. It consists of two sheets and will be on sale at check in.

PZ

The PZ-list will be revised and a new list will be sent to you with INFO 2.

GPS LOGGERS

A GPS logger is a device that registers the flight track and altitude. The observer will attach a logger on the balloon before start. After landing, the observer will use the GPS logger to register the landing, the goals and the markers.

The loggers are the same as those used at the World Championships in France 2002. It is a tool to get more accurate measurements and to get information, for instance, on lost markers.

FUELLING

The refuelling station is about 2,5 km from the Duveholm school, inside the SKF industry. Two balloons can be refuelled at the same time. There will be one outlet for REGO and one for TEMA and adapters. Swedish balloons must have return feed equipment on the tanks.

INSURANCE

All officials are covered by an accident and bodily injury insurance signed by the Swedish Sports Federation. Details are available in Swedish on request.
